"MY" Donna - I, too, am happy about our conversation. I am honestly overjoyed that we have re-connected. I always felt I had failed you. But, now, we can both truly move on.

You are coming to San Antonio at a magical time. If you have never been here at Christmas-time you are going to be blown away. If I can figure out how to do it, I will send you a picture via email. Either Marriott would be a good choice, right in the heart of the downtown area, which is the heart of the Riverwalk. River Center is the newer hotel; River Walk is much, much older, with more character. They're across the street from each other. We can walk to most places, but you may be interested in some other sights to which we'll have to drive.

Happy 50th birthday, belatedly. That's some kind of milestone, isn't it? I turned 62 in July and am receiving my social security now--a really big help for me.

I'm going to write Claire B. (Starnes) in a few minutes to thank her for persisting in trying to find me. I am just so happy.

Can't wait to see you. Much love, Joanne
