Dr. Scott Strassels is a health economics and outcomes researcher at Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals. Prior to joining Mallinckrodt, he was an assistant professor in the Division of Health Outcomes and Pharmacy Practice at the University of Texas at Austin College of Pharmacy. Dr. Strassels received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy and his Doctor of Pharmacy degrees from the University of Arizona and earned his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Pharmaceutical Outcomes Research and Policy at the University of Washington. Scott's clinical and research interests are focused on the clinical, economic, and patient-reported outcomes related to pain, palliative care, and healthcare issues at the end of life. He has also been active in teaching pain and palliative care to pharmacy students and other healthcare professionals.
